✦ Appendix: your calculations

01 Your chart at a glance

Aarav, you were born on a Thursday morning in Jaipur, just after sunrise on 15 August 1991, as Simha (Leo) was lifting over the eastern horizon. This first chapter gathers the handful of facts that shape everything else in your kundli.

The three pillars

Your Lagna, the rising sign, is Simha at 6°18′, in the nakshatra Magha. Simha is the royal fire sign ruled by Surya, the Sun, so the whole chart is read through a lens of dignity, visibility and the wish to lead from the heart. Magha, the nakshatra of the throne and of the ancestors, deepens that: you are someone who feels the weight of family, lineage and doing things properly.

Your Rashi, the Moon sign, is Tula (Libra), and your Janma Nakshatra is Chitra, pada 3. Chitra's symbol is a bright jewel and its deity is Tvashtar, the divine architect. This is the mind of a designer: you want things, people and ideas to fit together beautifully, and you are rarely satisfied with something that merely works.

Your Moon is also vargottama, sitting in Tula in both the birth chart and the Navamsa. Classical texts treat a vargottama graha as especially steady and trustworthy, and for the Moon that points to an emotional nature that is more stable than it may look from outside.

> ✦ Simha Lagna · Tula Rashi · Chitra Nakshatra pada 3 · traditional name syllable रा (Ra)

The day you were born

Your Janma Panchang, the five limbs of the day at your birth moment, reads: Guruvara (Thursday), Shukla Shashthi tithi in the bright fortnight, Chitra nakshatra, Shubha yoga and Kaulava karana. A Thursday birth in the waxing fortnight under a yoga literally named "auspicious" is a gentle, encouraging start, and Guruvara links your day of birth with Guru, the teacher.

What stands out

Four grahas sit together in your 1st house: Mangal (Mars), Budh (Mercury), Guru (Jupiter) and Shukra (Venus), all in Simha. This is a crowded, energetic Lagna. People notice you, and your own actions, words and choices are the main engine of your life rather than luck or other people.

Mangal is your Yogakaraka. For a Simha Lagna, Mars rules both the 4th house (a kendra) and the 9th house (a trikona), which makes it the single most helpful planet in the chart, and it sits in your own Lagna.

Several classical combinations are formed: a Raja yoga through Guru, Mangal and Shukra together in a kendra, a Dhana yoga linking your wealth lord Budh with the lords of fortune, and Harsha yoga from Shani, the lord of your 6th house, placed in the 6th in its own sign. Together they describe a person who rises through effort, earns through skill and outlasts opposition.

Your calculated charts. The Dasamsa (D10) Lagna is Tula (Libra). Its chart appears in the career chapter.

02 Your key predictions

These are the most important windows of the next ten years in your chart, strongest first. Each says when, why and how strong the indication is. They are windows of opportunity to plan around, never guarantees; the timing chapters later in this report give the detail.

1. Career rise and recognition · strong

When: November 2026 to January 2027, and again November 2027 to February 2028. Why: in both windows the double transit of Jupiter and Saturn falls on your 10th house; in the first, Guru is also in transit through Simha, your Lagna, and the second opens Shani Mahadasha. This is the clearest window of the decade for a promotion, a more visible role or a well-judged job change.

2. Commitment and marriage · strong

When: June to October 2027, then February 2028 to January 2030, at its peak from August to October 2029 and May to September 2030. Why: Shani, the lord of your 7th house, runs its own Mahadasha and Antardasha from August 2027, while the double transit touches your 7th house and its lord. For someone single this is the main marriage window of the decade; for someone married, a time of deeper shared commitment.

3. Income and gains · strong

When: August 2030 to May 2033 (Shani–Budh), with peaks from August to October 2032 and March 2033 to March 2034. Why: Budh rules your 2nd and 11th houses of income and savings, and the double transit falls on your 11th house in the peak months. Earnings through your own skill and network rise steadily in these years.

4. Home, property or vehicle · moderate

When: September 2030 to February 2031, and June to October 2031. Why: the double transit falls on your 4th house of home and property while Guru is in transit through Vrishchika, your 4th house. A sound window to buy, build or move, with papers checked carefully.

5. Children and creative projects · moderate

When: November 2026 to January 2027, late October to November 2027, and August to October 2032. Why: the double transit of Jupiter and Saturn falls on your 5th house of children, learning and creativity. A supportive time for family planning, a course or a creative launch.

6. Travel and links abroad · moderate

When: September 2030 to February 2031, and July 2034 to April 2035. Why: the double transit falls on your 12th house of foreign lands; from July 2034 Shani is also in transit through Karka, your 12th house, until August 2036. Long journeys, work with overseas clients or a longer stay abroad are favoured.

7. A period to pace yourself · mild

When: August 2029 to May 2032. Why: Shani is in transit through Vrishabha, the 8th from your Moon (a Dhaiya), and Ketu is in transit through your 10th house from January 2030 to July 2031. Expect a heavier workload and more responsibility; protect sleep, exercise and savings. This is a period of effort that builds, not a period of loss.

> ✦ Your strongest years: late 2026 to early 2028 for career, 2028 to 2030 for partnership, 2030 to 2034 for income.

03 Lagna: body, temperament and path

The Lagna is the most personal point in a kundli. It describes your body, your instinctive temperament and the direction your life naturally takes.

Simha rising

Simha is a fixed fire sign. It gives warmth, pride in good work, generosity and a strong sense of personal honour. With Simha rising you tend to take responsibility naturally; people look to you in a room even when you would rather they did not. The shadow side is sensitivity to criticism and a reluctance to ask for help, because asking can feel like losing face.

The first degrees of Simha fall in Magha, ruled by Ketu and presided over by the Pitris, the ancestors. Your sense of self is tied to where you come from. Honouring your elders, keeping family traditions alive and building something that outlasts you are not side interests; they are part of how you feel whole.

Your Lagna lord in the 12th house

Surya, the lord of your Lagna, sits in Karka (Cancer) at 27°59′, in your 12th house, in the nakshatra Ashlesha pada 4. The 12th house, Vyaya bhava, governs foreign lands, private life, sleep, spiritual retreat and expenditure. When the Lagna lord lives here, a person's life energy flows towards places and inner states away from the spotlight.

In practice this often shows up as a strong connection with travel or life abroad, work behind the scenes that later becomes visible, and a need for regular solitude to recharge. Surya sits in the sign of a friend, the Moon, so this placement is comfortable rather than strained. The advice of the tradition is simple: give yourself protected quiet time, and do not measure your worth only by public recognition.

Four grahas in the 1st house

Mangal, Budh, Guru and Shukra all rise with you. Mangal brings drive, courage and quick decisions. Budh adds wit and a gift for explanation. Guru adds conscience, optimism and the instinct to teach. Shukra adds charm, taste and a love of beautiful surroundings. It is a rich mixture, and learning which voice to follow at which moment is one of the quiet skills of your life.

Two of these four are close to the Sun and counted as combust: Budh and Guru. Combustion traditionally means a planet's results come through your own authority and identity rather than independently, so your intelligence and your principles are best expressed when you are the one in charge of a project. Budh and Shukra are also retrograde, a reflective quality: you often return to ideas and relationships to perfect them.

> ✦ Your Lagna holds Mangal, Budh, Guru and Shukra: action, speech, wisdom and grace all start with you.

The Navamsa Lagna

In the Navamsa (D9), the chart of inner strength and marriage, your Lagna is Vrishabha (Taurus). Under the fiery, visible Simha exterior sits a steady, patient, sensuous inner nature that values security and loyalty. Many people meet the Simha first and are surprised, later, by how grounded and reliable you are underneath.

04 Chandra: mind and emotions

In Jyotish the Moon is the mind. Its sign, house and nakshatra describe how you feel, what comforts you and how you respond under pressure.

A Tula Moon in the 3rd house

Your Chandra sits in Tula at 2°47′, in your 3rd house, Sahaja bhava. Tula is the sign of balance, fairness and relationship. Emotionally you need harmony around you, and conflict or rudeness affects you more than you usually let others see.

The 3rd house governs courage, siblings, communication and skills of the hand and voice. A Moon here gives a restless, curious mind that is happiest when it is making, writing, speaking or travelling short distances. Your moods are closely tied to whether you are creating something. When you feel low, the traditional remedy is also the practical one: pick up a craft, a conversation or a short journey.

Chitra, the bright jewel

Your Moon is in Chitra nakshatra, pada 3. Chitra is ruled by Mangal and presided over by Tvashtar, the celestial craftsman who shaped the gods' weapons and ornaments. People born under Chitra tend to have a strong eye for form, colour and structure, and they feel most alive when turning raw material into something finished and admired.

Because Chitra is ruled by Mangal, and Mangal is your Yogakaraka in the Lagna, your emotions and your drive are closely linked. When your heart is in a project, your energy follows. When it is not, even small tasks feel heavy. Choosing work you actually care about is therefore not a luxury for you; it is how your mind stays well.

> ✦ Chitra pada 3: the traditional first syllable for a name is रा (Ra).

Emotional steadiness

Your Moon is vargottama, in Tula in both the Rashi and Navamsa charts, which classical texts read as steadiness and reliability of mind. There is also a Kemadruma yoga, meaning no planet sits in the 2nd or 12th sign from the Moon. On its own that can describe times of feeling unsupported, but here it is cancelled: several grahas sit in a kendra from your Lagna, and Shani sits in a kendra from the Moon. The traditional reading is that the difficulty does not apply.

The lived lesson is still worth knowing. You are capable of carrying a great deal alone, and you should not have to. Keep two or three people with whom you can talk honestly, and your mind stays clear.

05 The nine grahas

Each graha has its own agenda. Here is where each of yours sits, what it rules, and how it is likely to express itself in your life.

Surya, the Sun

Surya sits in Karka at 27°59′ in your 12th house, in Ashlesha pada 4, in a friend's sign. As the lord of your Lagna it represents you: your vitality, confidence and sense of purpose. From the 12th house, the Sun gives its best through service, study, foreign connections and spiritual practice rather than through public competition. In the Navamsa the Sun moves to Meena (Pisces), a sign of compassion and inner vision, which supports the same theme: your authority grows when it serves something larger than yourself.

Chandra, the Moon

Chandra sits in Tula at 2°47′ in your 3rd house and rules your 12th. It is vargottama, the same sign in the Navamsa, which gives a stable, dependable mind. Because the Moon rules the 12th and your Lagna lord also sits in the 12th, rest, dreams, travel and private reflection are woven tightly into your emotional life. Good sleep is one of your most important supports.

Mangal, Mars

Mangal sits in Simha at 25°16′ in your 1st house, in Purva Phalguni pada 4, in a friend's sign. It rules your 4th house (home, property, inner peace) and your 9th house (fortune, father, teachers, faith), making it your Yogakaraka. With the Yogakaraka in the Lagna, your own initiative is the key that opens luck, property and support from mentors. In the Navamsa Mangal is in its own sign Vrishchika (Scorpio), which strengthens it further.

Mangal in the Lagna also creates Mangal dosha when counted from the Lagna. This is discussed properly in the chapter on yogas and doshas; for now it is enough to know that the same energy that makes you decisive can make you impatient, and that channelling it into sport or physical work is the classic and very effective answer.

Budh, Mercury

Budh sits in Simha at 9°57′ in your 1st house, in Magha pada 3. It is retrograde and combust, in a friend's sign, and it rules your 2nd house (speech, family, savings) and your 11th house (income, gains, networks). Budh is the lord of your money houses and it sits in your own Lagna, so your earning depends directly on your own skill, communication and reputation.

Retrograde Budh tends to think again: you revise, reconsider and often reach a better answer the second time. Combust Budh works best when your ideas carry your name. In the Navamsa Budh is in its own sign Mithuna (Gemini), so the underlying intelligence is strong even when it takes time to show.

Guru, Jupiter

Guru sits in Simha at 0°08′ in your 1st house, in Magha pada 1, combust and in a friend's sign. It rules your 5th house (children, creativity, learning, past merit) and your 8th house (transformation, research, hidden matters). Guru in the Lagna is one of the classic blessings of a chart: it gives conscience, a protective optimism and a natural role as advisor or teacher.

Guru is also the lord of your current Mahadasha, running from August 2011 to August 2027, so its themes of learning, growth and guidance have shaped your whole adult life so far. In the Navamsa Guru sits in Mesha (Aries), a fire sign, which keeps its energy active and forward-moving.

> ✦ Guru in your Lagna rules the 5th and 8th: wisdom, creativity and the ability to reinvent yourself.

Shukra, Venus

Shukra sits in Simha at 10°01′ in your 1st house, in Magha pada 4. It is retrograde and in the sign of a natural rival, the Sun, and it rules your 3rd house (courage, skills, siblings) and your 10th house (career and status). The lord of your career sits in your Lagna, which is a strong indication that your profession is closely tied to your personality, taste and presence.

Shukra in a challenging sign can make you demanding about beauty and fairness, sometimes to the point of frustration. Retrograde Shukra revisits relationships and creative work until they feel right. In the Navamsa Shukra is in Karka, a caring water sign, which softens it.

Shani, Saturn

Shani sits in Makara (Capricorn) at 8°23′ in your 6th house, in Uttara Ashadha pada 4. It is in its own sign and retrograde, and it rules your 6th house (work, health routines, competition) and your 7th house (marriage and partnership). Shani in its own sign in the 6th is one of the best placements Saturn can have: it gives stamina, discipline in daily work and the ability to outlast any competitor. This is your Harsha yoga.

Because Shani also rules your 7th house, partnership in your life is linked with work, duty and maturity. Relationships that grow slowly and are built on shared effort suit you far better than whirlwind romance. Shani's Mahadasha begins in August 2027, so these qualities become central to the next nineteen years.

Rahu and Ketu

Rahu sits in Dhanu (Sagittarius) at 23°25′ in your 5th house, in Purva Ashadha pada 4, and Ketu sits opposite in Mithuna at 23°25′ in your 11th house, in Punarvasu pada 2. Rahu in the 5th brings a hunger for unusual learning, creative experiments and ideas from other cultures, and sometimes a restless relationship with speculation. Ketu in the 11th gives a detached attitude to crowds, status and large networks: you value a few real friendships over many acquaintances.

Together they suggest that your growth lies in creative self-expression and original thinking (Rahu in the 5th), while you already know, almost instinctively, how to work within groups (Ketu in the 11th).

06 The twelve bhavas

Each house is a department of life. For each one we note its sign, where its lord sits, which grahas occupy it and its Sarvashtakavarga score. Scores of 28 or more are traditionally strong, and scores under 25 ask for more conscious care. Your total is 337, the fixed classical total.

1st to 4th house

1st house, Tanu (Simha, score 30). Lord Surya in the 12th; occupied by Mangal, Budh, Guru and Shukra. A strong, busy house: health, confidence and personal effort are your foundations.

2nd house, Dhana (Kanya, score 21). Its lord Budh sits in the 1st. The lower score asks for care with savings and with sharp words at home; your earning is strong because the lord is in the Lagna, but keeping money needs a deliberate habit such as automatic saving.

3rd house, Sahaja (Tula, score 26). Its lord Shukra sits in the 1st; Chandra occupies it. Courage, creativity and communication are emotionally important to you, and siblings or close colleagues play a real part in your story.

4th house, Sukha (Vrishchika, score 27). Its lord Mangal, your Yogakaraka, sits in the 1st. Home and property come through your own initiative; you are likely to build or buy your own place rather than simply inherit one.

5th to 8th house

5th house, Putra (Dhanu, score 27). Its lord Guru sits in the 1st; Rahu occupies it. Creativity, study and children are closely tied to your own identity. Rahu adds originality and an interest in unconventional subjects; it also asks for caution with gambling-style risks.

6th house, Ripu (Makara, score 32). Its lord Shani sits in the 6th in its own sign. One of your strongest houses: excellent capacity for work, service and overcoming obstacles. Routine is your ally.

7th house, Kalatra (Kumbha, score 19). Its lord Shani sits in the 6th. The lowest score in your chart, which is common for a house that asks for patience. Partnerships improve with time, shared work and realistic expectations, as the chapter on love explains.

8th house, Ayu (Meena, score 27). Its lord Guru sits in the 1st. A balanced house, supporting research, resilience and a healthy relationship with change.

9th to 12th house

9th house, Dharma (Mesha, score 28). Its lord Mangal, your Yogakaraka, sits in the 1st. Good fortune follows action; teachers, your father and your own principles are strong supports.

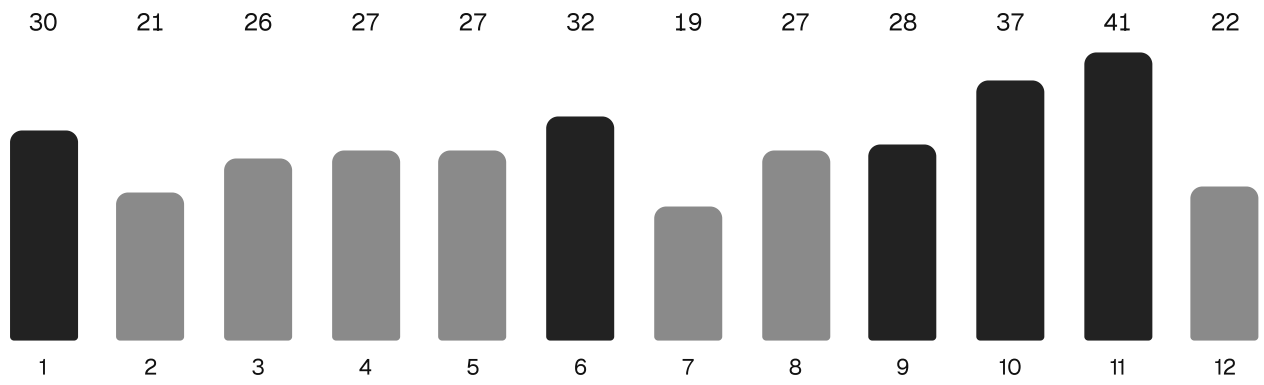
10th house, Karma (Vrishabha, score 37). Its lord Shukra sits in the 1st. A very strong career house. Work in which your taste, presence and relationships matter is traditionally indicated, and recognition grows steadily.

11th house, Labha (Mithuna, score 41). Its lord Budh sits in the 1st; Ketu occupies it. Your highest score: gains, income and the fulfilment of wishes are strongly supported, especially through your own skills and a small circle of genuine contacts.

12th house, Vyaya (Karka, score 22). Its lord Chandra sits in the 3rd; Surya occupies it. Expenses and time spent away from home need watching, and rest is precious. Foreign links and spiritual practice are meaningful here.

> ✦ Your strongest houses: 11th (41), 10th (37) and 6th (32). Gains, career and daily work are where the chart pushes you forward.

Sarvashtakavarga by house



Bindus per house (total 337). 28 or more is traditionally strong; under 25 asks for care.

07 Yogas and doshas

Yogas are classical combinations of grahas; doshas are combinations that ask for care. Here is every one the iAstroGuru Engine found in your chart, with its traditional meaning.

Yogakaraka Mangal

For a Simha Lagna, Mangal rules the 4th and 9th houses, a kendra and a trikona, which makes it the Yogakaraka. Placed in your own Lagna, it gives courage, initiative and a direct link between your effort and your luck. The years and projects in which you act boldly and physically tend to be your most fortunate.

Raja yoga

Guru (lord of the 5th, a trikona), Mangal (lord of the 4th and 9th) and Shukra (lord of the 10th, a kendra) sit together in your 1st house. The union of kendra and trikona lords is the classic Raja yoga, traditionally linked with rising status, respect and leadership. Because it forms in the Lagna itself, it works through your own personality and choices.

Dhana yoga

Budh, the lord of your 2nd and 11th houses of wealth, sits together with Guru and Mangal, the lords of your 5th and 9th houses of fortune. This is a Dhana yoga, traditionally linked with the ability to earn and to build resources. With your very strong 11th house score of 41, the potential for gains is clear; the lower 2nd house score is a reminder to save deliberately.

Harsha yoga

Shani, the lord of your 6th house, sits in the 6th in its own sign. This is Harsha yoga, one of the three Vipareeta Raja yogas, traditionally linked with good health, fearlessness and victory over opponents. It is the chart of someone who does well in demanding, competitive environments.

Kemadruma yoga, cancelled

No planet sits in the 2nd or 12th sign from your Moon, which technically forms Kemadruma yoga. It is cancelled because grahas sit in a kendra from your Lagna, and Shani sits in a kendra from the Moon. Classical texts do not apply its effects when it is cancelled like this.

Mangal dosha

Mangal sits in your 1st house counted from the Lagna, which forms Mangal dosha from the Lagna. Counted from the Moon, Mars is in the 11th, where there is no dosha. In most traditions, dosha from only one reference point is considered milder.

Mangal dosha is very common and is a matching consideration, not a verdict on a person. Traditionally it is balanced when both partners share it, and many further conditions can cancel it. When the time comes, compare both charts properly in a Kundli matching rather than relying on the label alone.

Kaal Sarp

Kaal Sarp is not formed in your chart: your planets sit on both sides of the Rahu–Ketu axis.

All eleven dosha checks

Of the eleven dosha checks, Mangal dosha is present in its mild form, from the Lagna only, and Kemadruma is cancelled. Kaal Sarp, Pitra, Grahan, Guru Chandal, Shrapit, Angarak, Vish and Gandmool are not present, and no Sade Sati or Dhaiya is running now.

08 Love and marriage

Relationships are read from the 7th house and its lord, from Shukra, and from the Navamsa, the chart that Parashara devotes to marriage.

The 7th house

Your 7th house is Kumbha (Aquarius), an air sign of friendship, independence and shared ideals. You are drawn to a partner who is intelligent, a little unconventional and genuinely a friend, someone with a life and opinions of their own. Its lord is Shani, placed in your 6th house in its own sign.

When the 7th lord sits in the house of work and service, partnership is bound up with shared effort and daily routine. Relationships in your life tend to deepen through doing things together: building a home, a business or a family routine. Shani's influence also counsels patience. Commitments made after the late twenties or once life feels settled are traditionally more stable for this placement.

Shukra and the Navamsa

Shukra, the significator of love, sits in your Lagna and is retrograde: you care deeply about beauty, loyalty and fairness in love, and you tend to revisit important relationships rather than let them go lightly. In the Navamsa Shukra sits in Karka, a nurturing sign, and your Navamsa Lagna is Vrishabha, ruled by Shukra itself. Underneath the Simha pride is a partner who wants security, affection and a comfortable home.

Mangal in the Navamsa sits in its own sign Vrishchika, together with Rahu. Passion and intensity are strong in close relationships. Honest conversation about expectations early on is the traditional safeguard.

> ✦ 7th house Kumbha, lord Shani in its own sign in the 6th: love that grows through shared work and time.

What helps

Your Moon in Tula wants fairness and gentleness, and your Simha Lagna wants to be appreciated. In practice, relationships go best when you say clearly what you need instead of expecting a partner to sense it, and when you make room for the other person's independence, which Kumbha on the 7th house asks for. Small, regular rituals together, such as a shared walk, meal or weekly plan, suit Shani, the lord of your 7th house, better than grand gestures.

The Shani Mahadasha from 2027 activates your 7th lord directly. For someone already in a relationship, it is traditionally a period of deepening commitment and shared responsibility; for someone still looking, it favours a partner who is serious, reliable and perhaps older or more established.

Mangal dosha and matching

As noted earlier, Mangal dosha is formed from your Lagna but not from your Moon. In a traditional match this is weighed alongside the other person's chart and the full Guna Milan. It does not decide anything on its own.

09 Work, wealth and purpose

Career is read from the 10th house and its lord, from the Dasamsa (D10), and from the houses of wealth, the 2nd and the 11th.

The 10th house

Your 10th house is Vrishabha, with a Sarvashtakavarga score of 37, the second highest in your chart. Vrishabha is the sign of value, beauty, stability and resources. Its lord Shukra sits in your Lagna, which ties your profession directly to your personality and taste.

Traditionally this points to work where presentation, design, relationships, finance, hospitality, the arts or luxury matter, or to any field where your personal presence and judgement are the product. Because the lord is retrograde, careers that involve refining, restoring or reinventing something suit you particularly well.

The Dasamsa (D10)

In your Dasamsa, the divisional chart of career, the Lagna is Tula and Chandra sits in it. Public-facing work, negotiation and anything that requires balance and diplomacy are emphasised. Mangal sits in Mesha, its own sign, in the 7th of the Dasamsa, which supports partnerships, clients and deal-making. Guru sits in Simha in the 11th of the Dasamsa, a classic support for gains and recognition from your professional network.

Wealth

Budh rules both your 2nd and 11th houses and sits in your Lagna with Guru and Mangal, forming the Dhana yoga described earlier. Your 11th house scores 41 in the Sarvashtakavarga, your highest, while your 2nd house scores 21. The practical reading is clear: you are likely to earn well through your own skills, but saving must be deliberate. Automatic transfers into long-term savings suit this chart better than good intentions.

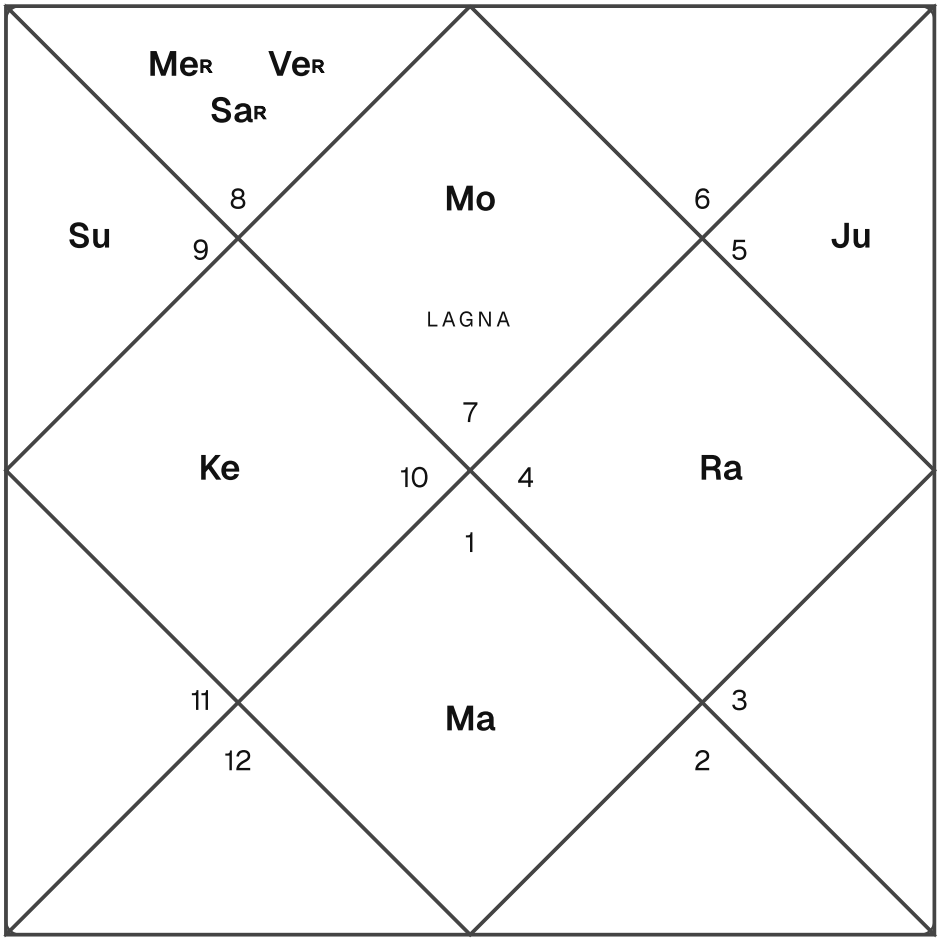
Timing for work

The rest of Guru Mahadasha, until August 2027, favours learning, advisory roles and building reputation. From late 2026 Guru in transit through your Lagna adds visibility. The Shani Mahadasha that follows, with Saturn strong in your 6th house, is traditionally one of the most productive periods a chart can have for steady professional growth, especially in roles with responsibility for people, systems or quality.

Within that Mahadasha, the Budh sub-period from August 2030 to May 2033 activates the lord of your 2nd and 11th houses and is the classic window for income and gains.

Purpose

With Shani strong in the 6th and Surya in the 12th, your deepest satisfaction comes from work that is useful and done well, often with a service or behind-the-scenes element, and from contributions that last. Titles matter to Simha, but in this chart meaning matters more.



▶ View chart as a table

Dasamsa (D10), the divisional chart of career and status.

10 The chapters of your life

Vimshottari dasha divides life into periods ruled by each graha in turn, starting from the lord of your birth nakshatra. You were born in Chitra, ruled by Mangal, so your life began in a short Mangal period.

Where you are now

You are in the last part of Guru Mahadasha, which runs from 26 August 2011 to 26 August 2027. Guru sits in your Lagna and rules your 5th and 8th houses, so these sixteen years have been about learning, growth, creativity and major personal transformation.

Within it you are now in Rahu Antardasha, from 1 April 2025 to 26 August 2027. Rahu sits in your 5th house, so this final sub-period brings unusual opportunities in study, creative work or new ventures, together with a restless urge to try something different. It is a good time to experiment, and a less good time for large speculative bets.

The Guru years, looking back

Guru's own sub-period opened the chapter (August 2011 to October 2013), followed by Shani (to April 2016), Budh (to August 2018), Ketu (to July 2019), Shukra (to March 2022), Surya (to December 2022), Chandra (to April 2024) and Mangal (to April 2025). If you look back, the Shukra years from 2019 to 2022, with the lord of your 10th house in your Lagna, are likely to have mattered especially for career and relationships.

Shani Mahadasha, 2027 to 2046

On 26 August 2027 you enter Shani Mahadasha, nineteen years ruled by Saturn. Shani sits in your 6th house in its own sign, rules your 6th and 7th houses and forms Harsha yoga. This is a strong, productive dasha for work, service, health discipline and long-term partnership. Results come steadily, and they last.

Its sub-periods run: Shani (August 2027 to August 2030), Budh (to May 2033), Ketu (to June 2034), Shukra (to August 2037), Surya (to July 2038), Chandra (to February 2040), Mangal (to April 2041), Rahu (to February 2044) and Guru (to August 2046). The opening Shani–Shani years set the tone: commitments, responsibilities and structures you build then tend to carry you for two decades. The Budh sub-period that follows activates your wealth lord and is traditionally good for income.

> ✦ Guru Mahadasha ends 26 August 2027; Shani Mahadasha, with Saturn strong in your 6th, runs until 2046.

Further ahead

After Shani comes Budh Mahadasha from 2046 to 2063, ruled by the lord of your wealth houses sitting in your Lagna, and then Ketu from 2063 to 2070 and Shukra from 2070. The long arc of your chart moves from learning (Guru) through effort and building (Shani) to harvesting the results of skill and reputation (Budh).

Vimshottari Mahadashas

Mangal 1991–1993	Rahu 1993–2011	Guru 2011–2027
Shani 2027–2046	Budh 2046–2063	Ketu 2063–2070
Shukra 2070–2090	Surya 2090–2096	Chandra 2096–2106

II The sky now

Transits, or gochar, describe how the moving planets touch your birth chart. As of 29 September 2026, here is what the slow planets are doing for you.

Shani

Shani is in transit through Meena (Pisces), your 8th house from the Lagna and the 6th from your Moon, until 3 June 2027. The 6th from the Moon is traditionally one of Saturn's best transit positions, favouring work, health routines and overcoming obstacles. From the Lagna, the 8th house asks for care with change and hidden matters. It then moves into Mesha, your 9th house, returns briefly to Meena from October 2027 to February 2028, and settles in Mesha from 23 February 2028.

You are not in Sade Sati. Your last Saturn Dhaiya (Saturn in the 4th from your Moon) ran from January 2020 to January 2023. The next Dhaiya, with Saturn in the 8th from your Moon, is expected from August 2029 to May 2032, and your Sade Sati from October 2038 to December 2046. That is many years away, and by then you will have the whole Shani Mahadasha's experience behind you.

Guru

Guru is in transit through Karka, your 12th house, until 31 October 2026, then enters Simha, your own Lagna and the 11th from your Moon. It moves back and forth between Karka and Simha until 25 June 2027 and then stays in Simha until 26 November 2027. Jupiter transiting the Lagna and the 11th from the Moon is traditionally among its most welcome positions: optimism, visibility, support from mentors and gains through your network.

Rahu and Ketu

Rahu is in transit through Kumbha, your 7th house, until 5 December 2026, then through Makara, your 6th house, until 23 June 2028. Rahu in the 6th is a classic supportive transit for competition, problem-solving and work. From June 2028 it returns to Dhanu, the sign it held at your birth, a period traditionally linked with a fresh cycle of ambitions.

> ✦ Late 2026 to 2027: Guru in your Lagna, Rahu moving into your 6th. A supportive window before Shani Mahadasha begins.

12 Your next 10 years

Year by year, from October 2026 to September 2036: the dasha running, where the slow grahas move through your houses (counted from your Simha Lagna), and what each year is best used for. Strength is marked as strong, moderate or mild.

October to December 2026

You are in Guru Mahadasha, Rahu Antardasha. Guru enters Simha, your Lagna, on 31 October 2026, and Rahu moves from your 7th house into Makara, your 6th house, on 5 December 2026. Shani stays in transit through Meena, your 8th house.

From November 2026 to January 2027 the double transit of Jupiter and Saturn falls on your 10th, 2nd and 5th houses together: recognition at work and a well-paid opportunity (strong), and a good window for a creative project or family plans (moderate). Rahu in the 6th favours competition and clearing pending work (moderate).

Rahu Antardasha closes on 26 August 2027 and Shani Mahadasha begins, opening with Shani–Shani. The whole year is a dasha sandhi, a changeover between two great periods, so finish what Guru began before you start large new commitments.

Guru returns to Karka, your 12th house, from January to June 2027: a quieter, inward stretch with more spending on travel or family (mild). Shani moves into Mesha, your 9th house, on 3 June 2027, and Guru re-enters your Lagna on 25 June 2027.

From June to October 2027 the double transit touches your 9th, 11th and 7th houses: support from mentors, long-distance travel and a serious relationship conversation (strong). From November 2027 to February 2028 it falls on your 10th house itself: a career step taken with full responsibility (strong).

Shani–Shani runs all year. Shani settles in Mesha, your 9th house, from 23 February 2028, and Rahu returns to Dhanu, your 5th house, on 23 June 2028, the sign it held at your birth.

From February 2028 to January 2030 the double transit touches your 7th house and its lord in the 7th lord's own period: the main marriage or partnership window of the decade (strong). From July to December 2028 it falls on your 6th house: competitive exams, clearing loans and a new health routine are favoured (moderate). Rahu's return brings a fresh ambition or a new course of study (moderate).

Shani–Shani continues. Guru moves between Tula, your 3rd house, and Kanya, your 2nd house, through the year, and Shani touches Vrishabha, your 10th house, from August to October 2029.

From December 2028 to March 2029, and again October 2029 to January 2030, the double transit falls on your 11th house: gains, a bonus or support from your network (strong). From August to October 2029 it falls directly on your 7th house, the single strongest weeks of the decade for commitment (strong). Shani's Dhaiya from your Moon begins in August 2029: plan your workload realistically (mild).

Shani–Shani ends on 29 August 2030 and Shani–Budh begins. Rahu moves into Vrishchika, your 4th house, and Ketu into Vrishabha, your 10th house, on 10 January 2030. Shani is in transit through Vrishabha, your 10th house, from 17 April 2030.

From May to September 2030 the double transit is on your 7th house again: a second strong window for marriage or a business partnership (strong). From September 2030 it moves to your 4th, 10th and 12th houses: buying or improving a home (moderate), and heavier responsibility at work with restructuring around you (moderate). Avoid an impulsive resignation in this Ketu year.

Shani–Budh runs all year, activating the lord of your 2nd and 11th houses. Guru moves into Dhanu, your 5th house, in February 2031, back into Vrishchika from June to October 2031, and into Dhanu again in October 2031. Rahu enters Tula, your 3rd house, on 31 July 2031.

Steady growth in income through your own skill (strong). From June to October 2031 the double transit is on your 4th, 10th and 12th houses: property, a role with more authority, or work and travel abroad (moderate). Rahu in the 3rd favours writing, media and short trips (moderate).

Shani–Budh continues. Guru is in transit through Makara, your 6th house, for most of the year, and Shani moves into Mithuna, your 11th house, on 30 May 2032, ending its Dhaiya from your Moon.

From March to May 2032 the double transit is on your 10th house: a career step (moderate). From August to October 2032 it falls on your 11th, 5th and 1st houses together: one of the best money windows of the decade (strong), with good support for children or a creative project (moderate).

Shani–Budh ends on 8 May 2033 and Shani–Ketu begins. Guru is in transit through Kumbha, your 7th house, from March 2033 to March 2034, and Rahu moves into Kanya, your 2nd house, in February 2033.

From March 2033 to March 2034 the double transit falls on your 11th house and your Lagna: gains, recognition and good health habits pay off (strong). Guru on the 7th supports your partnership and agreements (moderate). With Rahu on your 2nd house, keep savings away from speculative schemes (mild). The Ketu sub-period turns attention inward, towards research, spiritual practice and simplifying (mild).

Shani–Ketu ends on 16 June 2034 and Shani–Shukra begins. Guru moves into Meena, your 8th house, in March 2034, and Shani into Karka, your 12th house, on 12 July 2034. Rahu enters Simha, your Lagna, and Ketu Kumbha, your 7th house, on 5 September 2034.

Shani–Shukra activates the lord of your 10th house: a rewarding phase for career, comforts and the arts (strong). From July 2034 to April 2035 the double transit is on your 2nd and 12th houses: savings grow, and a long journey or a stay abroad is favoured (moderate). Ketu on the 7th asks for patience and shared time with your partner (mild).

Shani–Shukra continues. Guru moves into Mesha, your 9th house, on 6 April 2035, while Shani stays in Karka, your 12th house.

From April 2035 to April 2036 the double transit falls on your 9th house: higher learning, a teacher or mentor, pilgrimage and good fortune through your father's side (strong). Spending on travel and on foreign matters stays high under Shani in the 12th (moderate).

January to September 2036

Shani–Shukra continues. Guru is in transit through Vrishabha, your 10th house, from April to September 2036, and Rahu moves into Karka, your 12th house, in March 2036. Shani enters Simha, your Lagna, on 27 August 2036, opening a new long cycle of responsibility.

From April to August 2036 the double transit is on your 2nd, 6th and 7th houses: career recognition with Guru on the 10th (strong), good earnings (moderate) and steady support in partnership (moderate).

✦ The decade's arc: career rises first (2026–2028), partnership next (2028–2030), then income and property (2030–2034), then travel, learning and the arts (2034–2036).

13 The next 12 months

Month by month from October 2026 to September 2027: the pratyantar (sub-sub-period) running, the main movements of the grahas that month, and what to plan.

October 2026

Rahu–Ketu pratyantar until 15 October 2026, then Rahu–Shukra. Surya moves into Tula, your 3rd house, on 17 October, and Guru enters Simha, your Lagna, on 31 October 2026. A confident month end: start the plans you want noticed (strong).

Guru in your Lagna lifts confidence and goodwill around you, and the Shukra pratyantar adds charm to meetings and negotiations. If you have been waiting to ask for a new role, a course fee or a family blessing, this is the month to prepare the request.

November 2026

Rahu–Shukra pratyantar. Mangal enters Simha, your Lagna, on 12 November 2026, and Surya moves into Vrishchika, your 4th house, on 16 November. Energy and drive are high; keep your temper in check at home (moderate). The double transit on your 10th house supports a pay or role discussion (strong).

With Mangal and Guru both in transit through your Lagna, physical energy is high: channel it into exercise and a demanding project rather than arguments. Health tip for the month: regular sleep, because Mangal in the Lagna runs hot.

December 2026

Rahu–Shukra pratyantar. Rahu moves into Makara, your 6th house, on 5 December 2026, Shani turns direct on 11 December 2026 and Guru turns retrograde on 13 December 2026. A good month to clear pending work, debts and competition (moderate).

Rahu in the 6th is a classic support for interviews, competitive exams and resolving disputes through proper channels. Year-end reviews at work tend to go in your favour if you bring numbers rather than impressions.

January 2027

Rahu–Shukra pratyantar. Mangal turns retrograde on 10 January 2027, and Guru returns to Karka, your 12th house, on 24 January 2027. Review rather than launch; travel and family expenses rise (mild).

Guru in the 12th favours retreat, pilgrimage, hospital or charity work and foreign contacts. Use this month to plan the year, not to announce it.

February 2027

Rahu–Shukra pratyantar. Surya moves into Kumbha, your 7th house, on 13 February 2027. Partnerships and agreements need attention, and the long Guru-to-Shani changeover begins this month (moderate). Avoid large irreversible decisions.

With Surya facing your Lagna from the 7th, give your partner and business associates more of the stage; cooperation wins more than insistence this month.

March 2027

Rahu–Shukra pratyantar until 10 March 2027, then Rahu–Surya. Mangal moves into Karka, your 12th house, on 9 March 2027, and Surya into Meena, your 8th house, on 15 March. Rest, health check-ups and paperwork suit this month (mild).

Mangal in the 12th can bring tiredness or extra expenses; keep a buffer in your budget and avoid lending money informally.

April 2027

Rahu–Surya pratyantar until 23 April 2027, then Rahu–Chandra. Guru turns direct on 13 April 2027, Surya moves into Mesha, your 9th house, on 14 April, and Mangal returns to Simha, your Lagna, on 26 April. Momentum returns; good for study plans and mentors (moderate).

The Chandra pratyantar from late April makes you more sensitive to family moods; time with your mother or at home restores you.

May 2027

Rahu–Chandra pratyantar. Surya moves into Vrishabha, your 10th house, on 15 May 2027: visibility at work and a chance to present your results (moderate).

Surya in the 10th from your Lagna is traditionally one of its best transit positions: seniors notice you, and official or government work moves faster. Prepare the documents for anything you want approved in June.

June 2027

Rahu–Chandra pratyantar. Shani moves into Mesha, your 9th house, on 3 June 2027, and Guru re-enters Simha, your Lagna, on 25 June 2027. The double transit touches your 9th, 11th and 7th houses: one of the best months of the year for gains, travel and a relationship decision (strong).

Guru returning to your Lagna after five months in the 12th feels like coming back into the light. Use the month for the conversations that matter most, at work and at home.

July 2027

Rahu–Chandra pratyantar until 5 July 2027, then Rahu–Mangal. Mangal moves into Kanya, your 2nd house, on 4 July, and Surya into Karka, your 12th house, on 17 July. Watch spending and speak gently in the family (mild).

The Mangal pratyantar in the last weeks of Rahu Antardasha can bring urgency and impatience. Close loose ends, settle dues and avoid starting a dispute you would have to carry into the new Mahadasha.

August 2027

Rahu–Mangal pratyantar until 26 August 2027, when Shani Mahadasha begins. Shani turns retrograde on 9 August 2027. Surya enters Simha, your Lagna, on 17 August. A turning point: take on the responsibility you have been offered and keep promises small and firm (strong).

The first days of a new Mahadasha set its tone. Begin one disciplined habit, such as a fixed time for work, exercise or prayer, and keep it; Shani rewards consistency far more than intensity.

September 2027

The first weeks of Shani–Shani. Shukra moves into Kanya, your 2nd house, on 9 September 2027, and Surya follows on 17 September. Set up the routines, savings plan and commitments you want to carry for the next nineteen years (moderate).

> ✦ Best months: November 2026, June 2027 and August 2027. Quieter months: January and March 2027.

14 Key turning points

A dasha sandhi, the junction between two periods, is when the themes of one graha hand over to the next. These changeovers, and Shani's phases from your Moon, are the hinges of the coming years.

Guru to Shani: February 2027 to February 2028

The biggest turning point of your next twenty years falls on 26 August 2027, when Guru Mahadasha ends and Shani Mahadasha begins; its sandhi runs from February 2027 to February 2028. Guru sits in your Lagna and rules your 5th and 8th houses, so the closing years have been about learning, children, research and personal reinvention.

Shani rules your 6th and 7th houses and sits in its own sign in your 6th house in your birth chart, forming Harsha yoga. Its period rewards discipline, service, steady work and long-term partnership. During the sandhi year, finish what you started, avoid abrupt resignations or large speculative bets, and take on new responsibility once the new period has begun.

> ✦ Shani Mahadasha begins 26 August 2027: steady effort now builds results that last.

Shani–Shani to Shani–Budh: July to September 2030

On 29 August 2030 the Shani sub-period hands over to Budh, with a sandhi from July to September 2030. Budh rules your 2nd and 11th houses and sits in your Lagna, so the focus shifts from building structure to earning from it: income, savings, trade and communication.

Shani–Budh to Shani–Ketu: April to June 2033

On 8 May 2033 Budh hands over to Ketu, which sits in your 11th house in your birth chart. The sandhi from April to June 2033 marks a change from gathering gains to simplifying: some goals lose their pull, and research, spiritual practice and quiet work gain value. Keep finances simple during the changeover.

Shani–Ketu to Shani–Shukra: May to July 2034

On 16 June 2034 Ketu hands over to Shukra, the lord of your 3rd and 10th houses, placed in your Lagna. The sandhi from May to July 2034 opens a three-year phase of career growth, comfort, creative work and attention to relationships.

Shani’s phases from your Moon

You are not in Sade Sati now. Shani’s Dhaiya from your Moon, with Saturn in transit through Vrishabha, the 8th from your Moon, runs from August 2029 to May 2032: a time to pace yourself, protect health routines and avoid overcommitting. Shani enters Simha, your Lagna, on 27 August 2036, and your Sade Sati is expected from October 2038 to December 2046, by which time the Shani Mahadasha will have made you well prepared for it.

15 Marriage & relationships timing

Relationship timing is read from your 7th house (Kumbha) and its lord Shani, from Shukra, from the double transit of Jupiter and Saturn on the 7th house or its lord, and from the dashas of these grahas. Children are read the same way from your 5th house (Dhanu), whose lord Guru sits in your Lagna.

Your strongest commitment windows

June to October 2027 · moderate to strong. The double transit touches your 7th house as Shani Mahadasha approaches; a good time for a serious conversation or an engagement.

February 2028 to January 2030 · strong. Shani, your 7th lord, runs its own Mahadasha and Antardasha while the double transit touches your 7th house and its lord. The peak is from August to October 2029, when the double transit falls on the 7th house itself.

May to September 2030 · strong. The double transit falls on your 7th house again, a second clear window for marriage or a formal partnership.

March 2033 to March 2034 · moderate. Guru is in transit through Kumbha, your 7th house, supporting renewal of commitment and shared plans for those already married.

> ✦ Main marriage window: February 2028 to January 2030, peaking August to October 2029.

Periods that ask for patience

Until December 2026 Rahu is in transit through Kumbha, your 7th house: expectations can run ahead of reality, so take time before deciding (mild). From August 2029 to May 2032, Shani's Dhaiya from your Moon can let work crowd out time together (moderate). From September 2034 to March 2036 Ketu is in transit through your 7th house: some distance or detachment is possible, and regular shared time and honest conversation are the remedy (mild).

Your mild Mangal dosha from the Lagna is weighed in matching alongside the full chart of the other person; it is not a reason to delay a good match.

Children

November 2026 to January 2027 · moderate. The double transit falls on your 5th house, the house of children, while Rahu Antardasha activates the 5th house where Rahu sits in your birth chart.

Late October to November 2027 · mild to moderate. A short repeat of the same double transit on the 5th house.

February to June 2031, and October 2031 to March 2032 · moderate. Guru is in transit through Dhanu, your 5th house, in the Shani–Budh period.

August to October 2032 · moderate. The double transit falls on your 5th house once more. Family planning is a personal and medical matter; these are traditional supportive windows, not instructions.

16 Career & money timing

Work is read from your 10th house (Vrishabha, lord Shukra in your Lagna), income from the 2nd and 11th houses (both ruled by Budh), home from the 4th, long journeys from the 9th and foreign lands from the 12th, together with the double transit and your dashas.

Job change and promotion

November 2026 to January 2027 · strong: the double transit falls on your 10th house while Guru is in transit through your Lagna. November 2027 to February 2028 · strong: the double transit falls on the 10th house itself at the start of Shani Mahadasha, the best window for a role with more responsibility.

From April 2030 to May 2032 Shani is in transit through Vrishabha, your 10th house, with Ketu also there until July 2031: heavier duties and restructuring around you (moderate). Change jobs only with a firm offer in hand. March to May 2032 · moderate: a step up after that effort. April to September 2036 · strong: Guru in transit through your 10th house brings recognition.

Business and partnerships

Shani–Budh, from August 2030 to May 2033, favours trade, advisory work, accounts and anything built on communication (moderate to strong). Partnership businesses are best formalised in the double-transit windows on your 7th house, February 2028 to January 2030 and May to September 2030 (moderate).

Money gains and losses

Gains: December 2028 to March 2029, October 2029 to January 2030, August to October 2032, and March 2033 to March 2034 · strong, when the double transit falls on your 11th house. Savings: November 2027 to February 2028 and July 2034 to April 2035 · moderate, with the double transit on your 2nd house.

Spending runs high from January to June 2027, with Guru in transit through Karka, your 12th house (mild). From February 2033 to September 2034 Rahu is in transit through Kanya, your 2nd house: avoid speculative schemes and lending without paperwork (moderate). From July 2034 to August 2036 Shani is in transit through your 12th house: budget for travel and foreign expenses (moderate).

Property and vehicle

September 2030 to February 2031, and June to October 2031 · moderate to strong: the double transit falls on your 4th house of home, land and vehicles. January to May 2030 · moderate: Guru is in transit through Vrishchika, your 4th house. With Rahu in transit through the same house from January 2030 to July 2031, check titles and documents with extra care.

Foreign travel, settlement and education

June to October 2027 and April 2035 to April 2036 · moderate to strong: the double transit falls on your 9th house, favouring long-distance travel, higher study and pilgrimage. September 2030 to February 2031, June to October 2031, March to May 2032 and July 2034 to April 2035 · moderate: the double transit is on your 12th house, the classic support for work abroad or a longer stay overseas.

From June 2028 to January 2030 Rahu is in transit through Dhanu, your 5th house: a strong pull towards a new qualification, technical course or certification (moderate).

> ✦ Best money years: 2032 to 2034. Best career steps: November 2026 to January 2027 and November 2027 to February 2028.

17 The sixteen divisional charts

Parashara divides each sign into finer parts to read particular areas of life. These are the sixteen Shodashvarga charts. Each section names its chart, because a placement in a divisional chart is not a placement in your birth chart.

Rashi (D1) and Hora (D2)

The Rashi chart is your birth chart itself, described throughout this report. In the Hora (D2), the chart of wealth, your Lagna is Simha and the Sun, Moon, Mercury, Jupiter and Venus all fall in the Sun's hora, Simha: wealth earned through effort, status and your own name.

Drekkana (D3) and Chaturthamsa (D4)

In the Drekkana (D3), the chart of siblings and courage, your Lagna is Simha and Mars is in Mesha, his own sign: courage and initiative are real strengths, and siblings are likely to be energetic and independent.

In the Chaturthamsa (D4), the chart of home, property and fortune, your Lagna is Simha and Jupiter sits in the D4 Lagna, which is traditionally a protective signature for home and fixed assets.

Saptamsa (D7) and Navamsa (D9)

In the Saptamsa (D7), the chart of children, the Lagna is Kanya and Mars is exalted in Makara, the 5th from the D7 Lagna: a strong, energetic signature for children.

In the Navamsa (D9), the chart of marriage, dharma and inner strength, the Lagna is Vrishabha, the Moon stays in Tula (vargottama) and Venus is in Karka, a caring sign. Your inner nature values security, loyalty and patience.

Dasamsa (D10) and Dwadasamsa (D12)

In the Dasamsa (D10), the chart of career, the Lagna is Tula with the Moon in it, Mars is in his own sign Mesha in the D10 7th, and Jupiter is in Simha in the D10 11th: diplomacy, strong partnerships and gains through reputation.

In the Dwadasamsa (D12), the chart of parents, the Lagna is Tula and Jupiter sits in Simha, the 11th from the D12 Lagna, a supportive signature for what you receive from your parents.

Shodasamsa (D16) and Vimsamsa (D20)

In the Shodasamsa (D16), the chart of vehicles and comforts, the Lagna is Vrishchika and Jupiter sits in Simha, the D16 10th: comforts tend to come through work and standing.

In the Vimsamsa (D20), the chart of spiritual practice, the Lagna is Mesha and Mars sits in his own sign in the D20 Lagna, while Jupiter is in Dhanu, his own sign: disciplined, active spiritual practice suits you, under a teacher you respect.

Chaturvimsamsa (D24) and Bhamsa (D27)

In the Chaturvimsamsa (D24), the chart of learning, the Lagna is Makara and Saturn sits in his own sign in the D24 Lagna: learning that is slow, deep and structured, and qualifications that come through persistence.

In the Bhamsa (D27), the chart of strength and stamina, the Lagna is Kanya, Jupiter is in Mesha and Venus in Makara, while the Sun, Mars and Saturn gather in Kumbha, the D27 6th: stamina that shows most in work and service.

Trimsamsa (D30) and Khavedamsa (D40)

In the Trimsamsa (D30), traditionally read for difficulties and character, the Lagna is Kumbha and Jupiter sits in Mesha, the D30 3rd: the capacity to meet difficulty with courage and good judgement.

In the Khavedamsa (D40), the chart of maternal legacy, the Lagna is Dhanu and the Moon sits in Karka, her own sign: a warm, supportive inheritance from your mother's side.

Akshavedamsa (D45) and Shashtiamsa (D60)

In the Akshavedamsa (D45), the chart of paternal legacy and conduct, the Lagna is Vrishabha and the Moon is in Simha, while Jupiter too sits in Simha.

In the Shashtiamsa (D60), the finest division and traditionally the chart of past karma, the Lagna is Simha, the same as your birth Lagna, and Jupiter sits in the D60 Lagna. A matching D60 Lagna is read as a life whose outer path and deeper karma point the same way.

The pattern across the vargas

Your Jupiter, at 0°08′ Simha, falls in Simha in eleven of the sixteen divisional charts: the Rashi, Hora, Drekkana, Chaturthamsa, Saptamsa, Dasamsa, Dwadasamsa, Shodasamsa, Chaturvimsamsa, Akshavedamsa and Shashtiamsa. A graha that holds the same sign across so many vargas is traditionally read as a steady, dependable influence. For you that is Guru: wisdom, counsel and growth recur in every area of life.

> ✦ Guru falls in Simha in eleven of your sixteen divisional charts: a steady thread of wisdom through every area of life.

18 Ashtakavarga in depth

Your house scores

Your Sarvashtakavarga totals 337, the fixed classical total. By house from your Lagna the scores are: 1st 30, 2nd 21, 3rd 26, 4th 27, 5th 27, 6th 32, 7th 19, 8th 27, 9th 28, 10th 37, 11th 41 and 12th 22. Scores of 28 or more are traditionally strong; under 25 ask for care.

Your strongest houses are the 11th (41, gains and networks) and the 10th (37, career and status), with the 6th (32, work and service) next. The houses that ask for care are the 7th (19, partnership), the 2nd (21, savings) and the 12th (22, expenses). The chart earns and works strongly, and asks you to be deliberate about savings, spending and partnership.

> ✦ Strongest: 11th (41) and 10th (37). Needing care: 7th (19), 2nd (21) and 12th (22).

19 Vimshottari, Yogini and Chara dashas

Vimshottari

You are in Guru Mahadasha until 26 August 2027, in its last sub-period, Rahu. Then your nineteen-year Shani Mahadasha begins, with the Shani, Budh, Ketu, Shukra, Surya, Chandra, Mangal, Rahu and Guru sub-periods, until 26 August 2046, followed by Budh Mahadasha to 2063.

Yogini, and where the two agree

In the Yogini dasha you are in Sankata, ruled by Rahu, until 28 November 2026; then Mangala (the Moon) to November 2027, Pingala (the Sun) to November 2029, Dhanya (Jupiter) to November 2032, Bhramari (Mars) to November 2036 and Bhadrika (Mercury) to November 2041.

The two systems agree strikingly now: both run Rahu periods at the same time, Sankata in Yogini and Rahu Antardasha in Vimshottari. And from 2030 both turn towards Jupiter and Mercury, the Dhanya Yogini (2029–2032) and the Budh Antardasha (2030–2033), which is traditionally a strong window for learning and gains.

> ✦ Both dasha systems run Rahu periods now, and both turn to Jupiter and Mercury from 2029–2030.

Jaimini Chara dasha

The Chara dasha of Jaimini runs through signs rather than grahas. Yours began at birth with the Simha dasha and has been in the Makara dasha since 14 August 2020; it runs for twelve years, until 14 August 2032, because Saturn, Makara's lord, sits at home in Makara. Then come the Kumbha dasha (two years, to 2034), Meena (seven years, to 2041), Mesha (four years, to 2045), Vrishabha (three years, to 2048) and Mithuna (two years, to 2050).

Makara is the 6th house of your birth chart, the house of work, service and overcoming obstacles, and it holds Shani. A twelve-year Makara period that overlaps the start of your Shani Mahadasha in 2027 is a third system pointing to the same theme: disciplined work, steady effort and results that build over years.

> ✦ Chara dasha: the twelve-year Makara period (2020–2032), ruled by Shani at home, overlapping the start of your Shani Mahadasha.

20 KP: star and sub lords

The Krishnamurti Paddhati (KP) gives every position a sign lord, a star lord and a sub lord, which refines the reading of each graha.

The Lagna and the Moon

Your Lagna's star lord is Ketu (Magha) and its sub lord is Rahu. In KP the Lagna's sub lord describes the person's overall direction; a Rahu sub points to ambition, reinvention and an unconventional path.

Your Moon's star lord is Mars (Chitra) and its sub lord is Venus. The mind in your chart is energised by Mars and refined by Venus: quick feeling, a love of beauty and harmony.

The other grahas

Five grahas, Surya, Budh, Shukra, Rahu and Ketu, all have Saturn as their sub lord, which is unusual and reinforces the Saturn theme of your chart and your coming Shani Mahadasha: steady, structured results. Shani's own sub lord is Venus, Guru's is Ketu and Mangal's is Budh.

21 Your coming year (Varshaphal)

The Varshaphal for 2026–27

Your thirty-sixth year opened with your solar return on 15 August 2026 at 05:56 IST. The annual Lagna is Karka and Muntha sits in the annual 1st house, ruled by the Moon. The year's officials are the Moon and the Sun, each holding two of the four offices: a year of balancing purpose with care for home and family, with Jupiter in the annual Lagna as a protective presence.

22 Remedies

Upayas, traditional remedies, are ways of working with your chart, not guarantees. The ones below follow the specific grahas that need support in your kundli. Take what feels right and leave the rest.

For Surya, your Lagna lord in the 12th

Offering water to the rising Sun, reciting the Gayatri mantra or the Aditya Hridayam on Sundays, and simple acts of respect towards your father and elders are the classic practices. Given the 12th house placement, a daily routine that protects sleep and quiet time is itself a remedy for the Sun here.

Mantra: ॐ सूर्याय नमः (Om Suryaya Namah), 108 times on Sunday mornings. Daan: wheat, jaggery or red cloth on Sundays. Rudraksha: one-mukhi, traditionally linked with the Sun.

For Shani, lord of the coming Mahadasha

Shani is already strong in your chart, so the traditional advice is to cooperate with it rather than appease it: keep promises, serve people who work hard for little reward, and keep your body active. Many families light a sesame-oil lamp on Saturdays or recite the Shani stotra. Charity to labourers or the elderly on Saturdays is a traditional practice before and during Shani Mahadasha.

Mantra: ॐ शं शनैश्चराय नमः (Om Sham Shanaishcharaya Namah), 108 times on Saturdays, especially from the start of Shani Mahadasha on 26 August 2027 and through Shani's Dhaiya from August 2029 to May 2032. Daan: black sesame, mustard oil or a warm blanket on Saturdays. Fasting: a simple Saturday fast, if your health allows.

For Mangal and Mangal dosha

Regular physical exercise is the most practical remedy for a strong Mangal in the Lagna. Traditionally, reciting the Hanuman Chalisa on Tuesdays and visiting a Hanuman temple are associated with steadying Mars.

Mantra: ॐ भौमाय नमः (Om Bhaumaya Namah), 108 times on Tuesdays. Daan: red lentils (masoor) on Tuesdays. Rudraksha: three-mukhi.

For Rahu, until August 2027

Rahu sits in your 5th house in your birth chart. Its Antardasha runs until 26 August 2027: recite ॐ राहवे नमः (Om Rahave Namah) 108 times on Saturdays, and worship of Goddess Durga is the classic practice for Rahu. Keep speculation and shortcuts out of your finances during this sub-period.

For Guru, lord of your 5th house

Guru rules your 5th house of children and learning and also your 8th, and is combust in your Lagna. Mantra: ॐ बृहस्पतये नमः (Om Brihaspataye Namah), 108 times on Thursdays. Respecting teachers and donating books, turmeric or chana dal on Thursdays are traditional; the rudraksha is five-mukhi.

Gemstones

Classical texts associate ruby with the Sun and red coral with Mars, the Yogakaraka for Simha Lagna. Gemstones are a traditional practice, not a prescription. Please consult a trusted astrologer who has examined your whole chart before wearing one, and never feel pressured to buy an expensive stone.

Ruby for Surya, your Lagna lord: set in gold or copper, worn on the ring finger, first put on on a Sunday morning; red garnet or red spinel are the traditional substitutes. Red coral for Mangal, lord of your 4th and 9th houses: gold or copper, ring finger, Tuesday morning; carnelian is the substitute. Yellow sapphire for Guru: gold, index finger, Thursday morning; citrine or yellow topaz are substitutes, and because Guru also rules your 8th house, tradition asks for extra care with this stone. The weight is chosen for you by the astrologer who examines your chart.

23 How this report was made

Every position was calculated by the iAstroGuru Engine: the Lahiri ayanamsa, whole-sign houses, Parashari rules for the sixteen vargas and Ashtakavarga, Vimshottari and Yogini dashas, the Jaimini Chara dasha in the K.N. Rao form, KP lords from the standard 249-sub division, and the Tajik solar return for the Varshaphal.

The text was written from these calculated facts and checked automatically against the chart before release. Astrology is an interpretive tradition, and nothing here is medical, legal or financial advice. This sample was prepared for a fictional person, Aarav Sharma.

Ashtakavarga

Signs are counted from Mesha (Aries). A graha with more bindus in a sign gives better results while transiting it; 28 or more Sarvashtakavarga bindus is traditionally strong.
